AT THE THEATRES.

"The Circus" at Miner's. "The Circus" will undoubtedly draw large audiences at Miner's Newark Theatre next week. Following is what the Philadelphia Inquirer said of this comedy: "'The Circus,' at the Grand Opera-House, has exceeded even the rosiest managerial expectations of success. The great auditorium of the theatre is crowded at every performance, and it is no exaggeration to say that 'The Circus' has fairly caught the town. Its success is well deserved, for it is truly a remarkable entertainment. Nothing in stage realism has equalled the immense stretch of canvas at the Grand Opera-House, with the crowded circus seats and the immense ring. In fact, it is not a stage representation, but can honestly MOUNTAINSIDE HOSPITAL. be called 'The Circus.'

"Its superior attractiveness, too, can be put down to the fact that the whole show is handled by the most experienced circus men, and the true circus air pervades everything, even to the arrangement in front of the house-where sawdust covers the spacious canvas-covered vestibule, and where the voice of the candy butcher and peanut vender is not often at rest. It deserves the name of 'the greatest stage show onearth.'"

At Waldmann's.

At Fred Waldmann's Newark Opera-House next week the attraction will be the City Club Vaudeville and Burlesque Company. A musical farce entitled "Sports in a Grotto" is the opening number of an extensive programme. Many beautiful costumes and scenic effects are introduced in this part of the entertainment, the marching of the young ladies being especially attractive. Paul Allan, the black-face comedian, in his eccentric songs and dances, begins the vaudeville part of the show, followed by May Lawrence, whose songs are very pleasing. The Roger brothers, German dialect comedians, contribute their amusing act. Lea Peasley, a charming vocalist, and Thomas Haley in the character of an every-day Irishman, and William Scherer, the trick violinist, add a pleasing part to | hospital and see the comfortable and the show, as also the Speck brothers, midget boxers, in an interesting and amusing four-round bout.

The closing part of the performance is a merry burlesque, entitled "Looking for O," introducing Harry Bryant in his popular character of a tramp. The singing of the college girls and rowing-club chorus are features of the burlesque. The cast consists of the entire company.

Bloomfield's Odd Fellows. Olive Branch Lodge, No. 51, I.O. O. F., met at their rooms Monday night, and after regular routine business a pleasant and profitable hour was spent in drill and rehearsal. Officers occupying the chairs showed that they have not been idle, and their rendering of the charges was very creditable. There. will another rehearsal next Monday night. The initiatory will be conferred on the 18th and the first degree on the 25th of this month. There are three candidates awaiting initiation. Notice was served by Brother Smith of a fourth proposal next Monday night, and several old members have recently been reinstated. All Odd Fellows in good standing will receive a cordial welcome every Monday night at 8 o'clock. Real Estate Transfers.

IS IT A BLUNDER?

Politicians Agitated Over a Reported Non-Compliance With the Election Law. The local politicians are very much concerned over a rumor that the party nominations in this town are likely to be declared void on account of a failure to hold the primaries at an earlier date. The rumor is that a law was passed at the recent session of the Legislature and signed by the Governor requiring all nominations in townships of over 4,000 inhabitants to be filed at least eight days before election.

William V. Hughes, a prominent Democratic politician in this town, consulted Colonel E. L. Price in reference to the matter yesterday morning. Col. Price was of the opinion that the nominations shauld have been filed on or before April 4. He sent Mr. Hughes to consult Fred. Adams, Township Counsel for East Orange, about the law. Mr. Adams told Mr. Hughes that the matter was a very important one, and he thought it would furnish a peg "for some one to hang his hat on."

County Counsel Stevens is reported as saying that he was not sure whether the law applied to local township nominations or not.

Montelair's Democrats, in order to make sure, filed their nominations within the required time. West Orange Democrats have also filed theirs. East Orange Republicans have done likewise. If the law applies, both Democrats and Republicans in this town are in fix. Committeemen illegally elected Fine Lace Covers, Mourning Styles and may not care to put their names to a township note for $15,000 and have it discounted in anticipation of taxes.

Extra Nurses Needed.

The last few weeks have been trying ones at the Mountainside Hospital. The nurses have been kept very busy. Al the beds in the men's ward are occupied, four in the women's ward, and one in the children's. With the exception of four of the patients all have been seriously ill, and the nurses are beginning to feel quite exhausted, so that it is necessary to secure immediately another competent nurse to relieve them. Christian, the man servant, who also assists the nurses in their night work, has given out, so that the Executive Committee at their meeting last Monday decided to give him a vacation of two weeks and employ some one to fill his place during his absence. During the month af March twenty-two cases were treated, eight of which were surgical operations. If those persons who have had doubts about the need of such an institution in our vicinity would visit the hospital and see the good work carried on there, their doubts would be removed and they would be ready to acknowledge the necessity of just such a home for the poor and suffering of our town. Wed nesday and Saturday, from two until five, are the days that visitors are received All are cordially invited to visit the pleasant home provided for those who are sick and unable to be cared for elsewhere.

Gave Stale Beer to Children.

Edward France, who is better known to his compatriots as "Dutchy," and Louis Garnier, jr., were arrested by Officer Foster on Wednesday evening, charged by Maria Westerfield with cruelty to her two brothers, Charlie and Willie, aged eight and six years respectively. She said the two men had plied the children with stale beer until they were beastly intoxicated and then stood by and laughed at their work. Miss Westerfield's testimony was corroborated by her mother. France and Garnier were taken before Justice Post, who committed them to the County jail to await the action of the Grand Jury. Much indignation is expressed in the lower end of the town over the affair. Garnier has been released on bail.

A Bloomfield Fireman in Montclair.

Frank G. Tower of Essex Truck Company attended the Montclair Town meeting on Monday night, and when the subject of an appropriation for a fire-alarm was under discussion made an address explaining the merits of the Gamewell system. Mr. Tower is admitted to have been influential in securing the appropriation of $4,000, and the Montclair firemen feel that they are indebted to Mr. Tower.

Struck in the Eye.

While engaged in loading brass crates to be shipped to Newark on a wagon at P. Hayden's mill on Tuesday morning, Joseph Miller, one of the helpers, was struck in the right eye with a hook handled by Thomas Dillon, which accidentally slipped out of the crate. It is feared that Miller will loose the sight of Sewerage in Montelair. A large portion of the annual report of the Montclair Town Committee is devoted to the subject of sewerage. The Township Committee has been authorized to go ahead with the local sewerage Bonds will be issued to defray system. the cost.
